PROCEDURE SUMMARY

Recurring performance reviews are an integral part of performance management for all employees. Due to the nature of the work performed by professorial titled faculty, procedures are required which are different than those of non-faculty employees.

This procedure establishes the performance review cycle and outlines procedures for conducting performance reviews of individuals who hold one of the following titles in the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service (AgriLife Extension):

- Professor and Extension Specialist
- Associate Professor and Extension Specialist
- Assistant Professor and Extension Specialist

PROCEDURES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1.0 PROCEDURES FOR ANNUAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW

1.1 Position

The position is created by the unit head when establishing a new position or updated when filling a vacant position. It describes the general duties and responsibilities associated with the position and is submitted for approval in Workday.

The position will be reviewed initially upon hire and then annually during the performance review process by both the unit head and the employee to ensure it reflects the current requirements for the position. Updates should be made when a significant shift in duties has occurred or is planned.

1.2 Documentation of Performance Review

Refer to the Performance Review Schedule for performance review form and time period for evaluation.

1.3 A performance review conference will be held between the supervisor and employee to discuss the employee’s performance during the past year.

1.4 Filing Performance Reviews

Upon completion, performance review materials will be uploaded, routed for approval, and stored in Workday.
