

AgriLife Classification Description

Last Updated: 4/17/02

9371
BUSINESS ADMINISTRATOR II
11/01/01

SUMMARY

General Description: Manages the full range of business activities for a unit, including reviewing and approving business documents for the unit head and developing, monitoring and reporting accounts and unit budget and other quantitative data.

DUTIES

Typical: Serves as an approver and back-up signer of vouchers and requisitions; prepares and analyzes business reports such as affirmative action reports and space allocation reports; monitors and controls unit expenditure plans within budget guidelines and makes projections; develops annual University budget documents for approval; reviews and approves account reconciliations for unit accounts; assists with the management of financial activities of the unit, including assigning costs to appropriate accounts and projects; manages cash handling activities by the unit; manages unit capital equipment purchasing; serves as accountable property officer; manages annual fiscal year closing activities; resolves operational and procedural financial problems for unit; serves as liaison with the Financial Management Services Department and the Human Resources Department; serves as office manager delegate; manages personnel activities of the unit, including the preparation of position analyses and faculty offer documents and development of employment offers; communicates with unit employees regarding personnel policies and procedures; advises unit or division level administration concerning administrative and fiscal procedures; manages maintenance of unit business files; performs analyzes of resource allocations and operating fund requirements; represents unit on University, college and division committees; identifies business-related needs and problems of unit, proposing solutions; identifies unit training needs; implements and audits unit business procedures and trains staff on new and existing procedures; interprets System policies and regulations and University rules; participates in the hiring and training of subordinate business classified staff and student workers; may supervise unit business classified and nonclassified staff and resolves staff conflicts; establishes, implements and audits unit procedures for special activities and programs; conducts surveys of customer needs and satisfaction; manages allocations and reporting on unit facilities, furnishings and equipment; coordinates donor gift and recognition activities; disseminates business information; performs related duties as required.

SUPERVISION

Received: General instruction from administrative supervisor.

Given: May train and/or supervise business classified and nonclassified staff and student employees.

EDUCATION

Required: Bachelor's degree or any equivalent combination of training and experience (eight years experience with high school graduation or four years with an Associate degree).

Preferred: Master's degree and/or professional certification in business, human resources or other related field.

EXPERIENCE

Required: Eight years of professional experience in general office, accounting or personnel operations.

Preferred: Experience in task management and supervisory experience.

KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES AND SKILLS

Typical: Working knowledge of spreadsheet and word processing. Use of standard office equipment and personal computers.