Conflict of Interest Declaration

A Texas A&M AgriLife employee may not solicit, offer, confer, agree to confer, accept or agree to accept any benefit in exchange for his or her decision, opinion, recommendation, vote or other exercise of official power or discretion. An employee may not accept or solicit any gift, favor or service that might reasonably tend to influence the employee in the discharge of official duties or that the employee knows or should know is being offered with the intent to influence the employee's official conduct. An employee who exercise discretion in connection with contracts, purchases, payments, claims and other pecuniary transactions of government may not solicit, accept or agree to accept any benefit from any person the employee knows is interested in or is likely to become interested in any contract, purchase, payment, claim or transaction involving the employee's discretion. For more information, see Texas A&M University System Policy 7.04, Benefits, Gifts and Honoraria. (<http://policies.tamus.edu/07-04.pdf>)

I certify that I have read and understand the above statement.
