TO: AgriLife Employees
SUBJECT: ComPsych Political Stress Resources

As election day approaches, there is an understandable and significant amount of stress/anxiety for many of people. Attached you’ll find a ComPsych Resource Guide addressing these emotions related to pre – and post-election.

Additionally, ComPsych will be hosting 4 live webinars called Informed Or Infirmed? Healthy Media Consumption As Election Day Approaches. Please find the description along with registration details below:

Webinar Description: As Election Day nears, are your media consumption habits helping you make good decisions, or are they making you sick? The upcoming election is a significant source of stress and anxiety for many of people. Participating in social media discussions, reading newspapers, following your favorite political pundits, and watching election news on TV can help you stay informed and engaged. If you’re not careful though, you may use these avenues in unhealthy ways that make you feel worse. This training will help you implement healthy media consumption habits that don’t damage your mental and physical wellbeing.
